

GUIDELINES FOR AWARDING IN THE COMMITTEES AT MUNLawS 2025

A. POSITION PAPER
1. introduction of the topic	no topic (0)	topic briefly stated (1)	topic explained (2)
2. explanation of the delegation's position	no position (0)	some (1)	detailed (2)
3. past actions	not mentioned (0)	some (1)	detailed (2)
4. possible solutions	not mentioned (0)	some (1)	detailed (2)
5. useage of relevant sources	bad (0)	good (1)	excellent (2)
6. position paper exceeds 2 pages	(-1)
7. document not single-spaced, written in Source Sans Pro font, size 12	(-1)
8. position paper does not include a header stating the country being represented, the committee and the topic	(-1)
9. sources not properly cited in footnotes	(-1)
10. position papers not merged into a single file	(-1)
If the delegate does not submit position paper within the deadline, they receive 0 points for the Position Paper segment.
If a paper is predominantly (over 50 %) written with artificial intelligence, according to ZeroChatGPT ( https://www.zerogpt.com/ ), the delegate receives 0 points for the Position Paper segment.
10 POINTS (20%)

B. SESSIONS
1. attendance	barely there (0)	rarely there (1)	mostly there (2)	always there (3)
2. participation	none (0)	shy (3)	active (6)	leader (9)
3. knowledge of the topic	none (0)	minor (2)	decent (4)	excellent (6)
4. familiarity with and application of the Rules of Procedure	poor (0)	satisfactory (2)	great (3)	commanding (4)
5. country representation	failing to represent country position, e.g., wrong policies (0)	speaks generally, but not contra their country (3)	good (5)	excellent and realistic country representation (8)
6. writing sessions (final documents)	not active (0)	just there, but paying attention (3)	provides ideas and engages (5)	writing resolution, leading the debate etc. (6)
7. decorum (behaviour, attire, diplomatic courtesy etc.)	none (1)	minor (2)	decent (3)	good (4)
8. use of prewritten documents	up to (-6)
9. violations of electronic devices policies	up to (-3)
10. use of languages other than English	up to (-2)
40 POINTS (80%)

TOTAL: 50 POINTS

AVAILABLE AWARDS IN THE COMMITTEES

Award	1st Award	2nd Award	by the discretion of the Chairs
Security Council	Best Delegate (award)	Honorable Mention (verbal mention)	Most Improved Delegate (verbal mention)
Security Council – High School	Best Delegate (award)	Honorable Mention (verbal mention)	Most Improved Delegate (verbal mention)
Human Rights Council	Best Delegate (award)	Honorable Mention (verbal mention)	Most Improved Delegate (verbal mention)
UN General Assembly	Best Delegate (award)	Honorable Mention (verbal mention)	Most Improved Delegate (verbal mention)
International Olympic Committee	Best Delegate (award)	Honorable Mention (verbal mention)	Most Improved Delegate (verbal mention)
European Parliament's Committee on Foreign Affairs	Best Delegate (award)	Honorable Mention (verbal mention)	Most Improved Delegate (verbal mention)
Historical Committee	Best Delegate (award)	Honorable Mention (verbal mention)	Most Improved Delegate (verbal mention)
European Court of Human Rights	Best Judge (award)	Best Councillor (award)	/
OSCE Court of Conciliation and Arbitration	Best Arbitrator (award)	Best Agent (award)	/

RULES FOR DETERMINING BEST SMALL AND LARGE DELEGATIONS

1. The best small delegation (from 2 to 9 delegates) receives the Best Small Delegation Award. The best large delegation (10 or more delegates) receives the Best Large Delegation Award.
2. When a member of a delegation receives the Best Delegate award in their own committee, the delegation receives three (2) points. When a member of a delegation receives an Honorable Mention award in their own committee, the delegation receives one (1) point. When a member of a delegation receives Most Improved Delegate Awards in their own committee, the delegation receives one (1) point. All the points are calculated, and divided by the square root of the number of delegates. The delegation with the largest amount of points receives the award mentioned in the previous paragraph.
3. If two or more delegations receive the same number of points, the award is given to the delegation with more Best Delegate awards. If the number of Best Delegates awards is the same, the award is given to the delegation with more total awards. If the number of total awards is the same, the award is given to the delegation with higher point average as scored by the Chairs.